

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
ORLANDO DIVISION

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT
JUDICIAL LAW CLERK (2 Positions)

$56,411 - $95,010

Announcement No.: 09-19 Closes: When filled Available: Winter 2010/Spring 2010 for a 1-2 year term

Position Overview

The judicial law clerk researches issues of law, attends trials and other court proceedings, acts as legal advisor, and makes recommendations based on the law, to District Judge Mary S. Scriven, United States District Court, Middle District of Florida. The caseload in the jurisdiction is heavy, and the types of cases presented are varied, both civil and criminal, often involving novel issues of law. While the nature of the matters presented is serious, the office environment is personable. There is daily interaction with the Judge and other law clerks concerning legal and court-related issues. Administrative duties are also part of the position. Chambers arrangements do not provide for a secretary for the Judge or law clerks. One of the positions will likely be designated more heavily administrative than the other two positions. As such, significant administrative experience would enhance an applicant's opportunity for this position and should be emphasized in the application.

Minimum Qualification Requirements

At the time of appointment, the applicant must be a law school graduate with academic standing in the upper twenty percent of the class, or have other demonstrated proof of superior research and writing skills and legal acumen. Additionally, the applicant must be proficient in computer-assisted research, Windows and Word Perfect 9. Experience on the editorial board of law review or on moot court or publication in a law review journal is preferred. Two or more years of practice experience is also preferred. Maturity, ethics and commitment to the law are required.

Information for Applicants

Employment with the United States District Court offers civil and criminal law experience at the federal court level and an environment providing significant responsibility and challenge.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, current resume with class rank and honors, day and evening telephone numbers, transcripts and writing samples to: Federal Clerkship, Attention: Position 09-19, US District Court, 401 W. Central Blvd, Suite 5650, Orlando, Florida 32801-0365.

Deadline for Receipt of Resumes

All resumes will be considered when received. Selected interviews will be scheduled until the positions are filled. Due to the volume of applications usually received, receipt of individual applications will not be acknowledged. Calls to chambers to check status of an application are strongly discouraged.
